

The board and/or other policy makers of Dutch Cuisine (fiscal code 85487808) will not receive any remuneration for work that they carry out, with the exception of a holiday sum that is not disproportionate in nature. In the event of a board member and/or another policy maker additionally carrying out an executive position, the board may remunerate the manager or the other policy maker for tasks completed within the capacity of that position. Any costs that are incurred by board members when carrying out tasks within their position will be reimbursed by the foundation.
